

Puebla

The scrubs are located in a small portion of the sierras of the south of Puebla; corresponds to xerófilo scrub and the main species are: huizache, teteche and pitayo.

