

Abiotic Factors

2

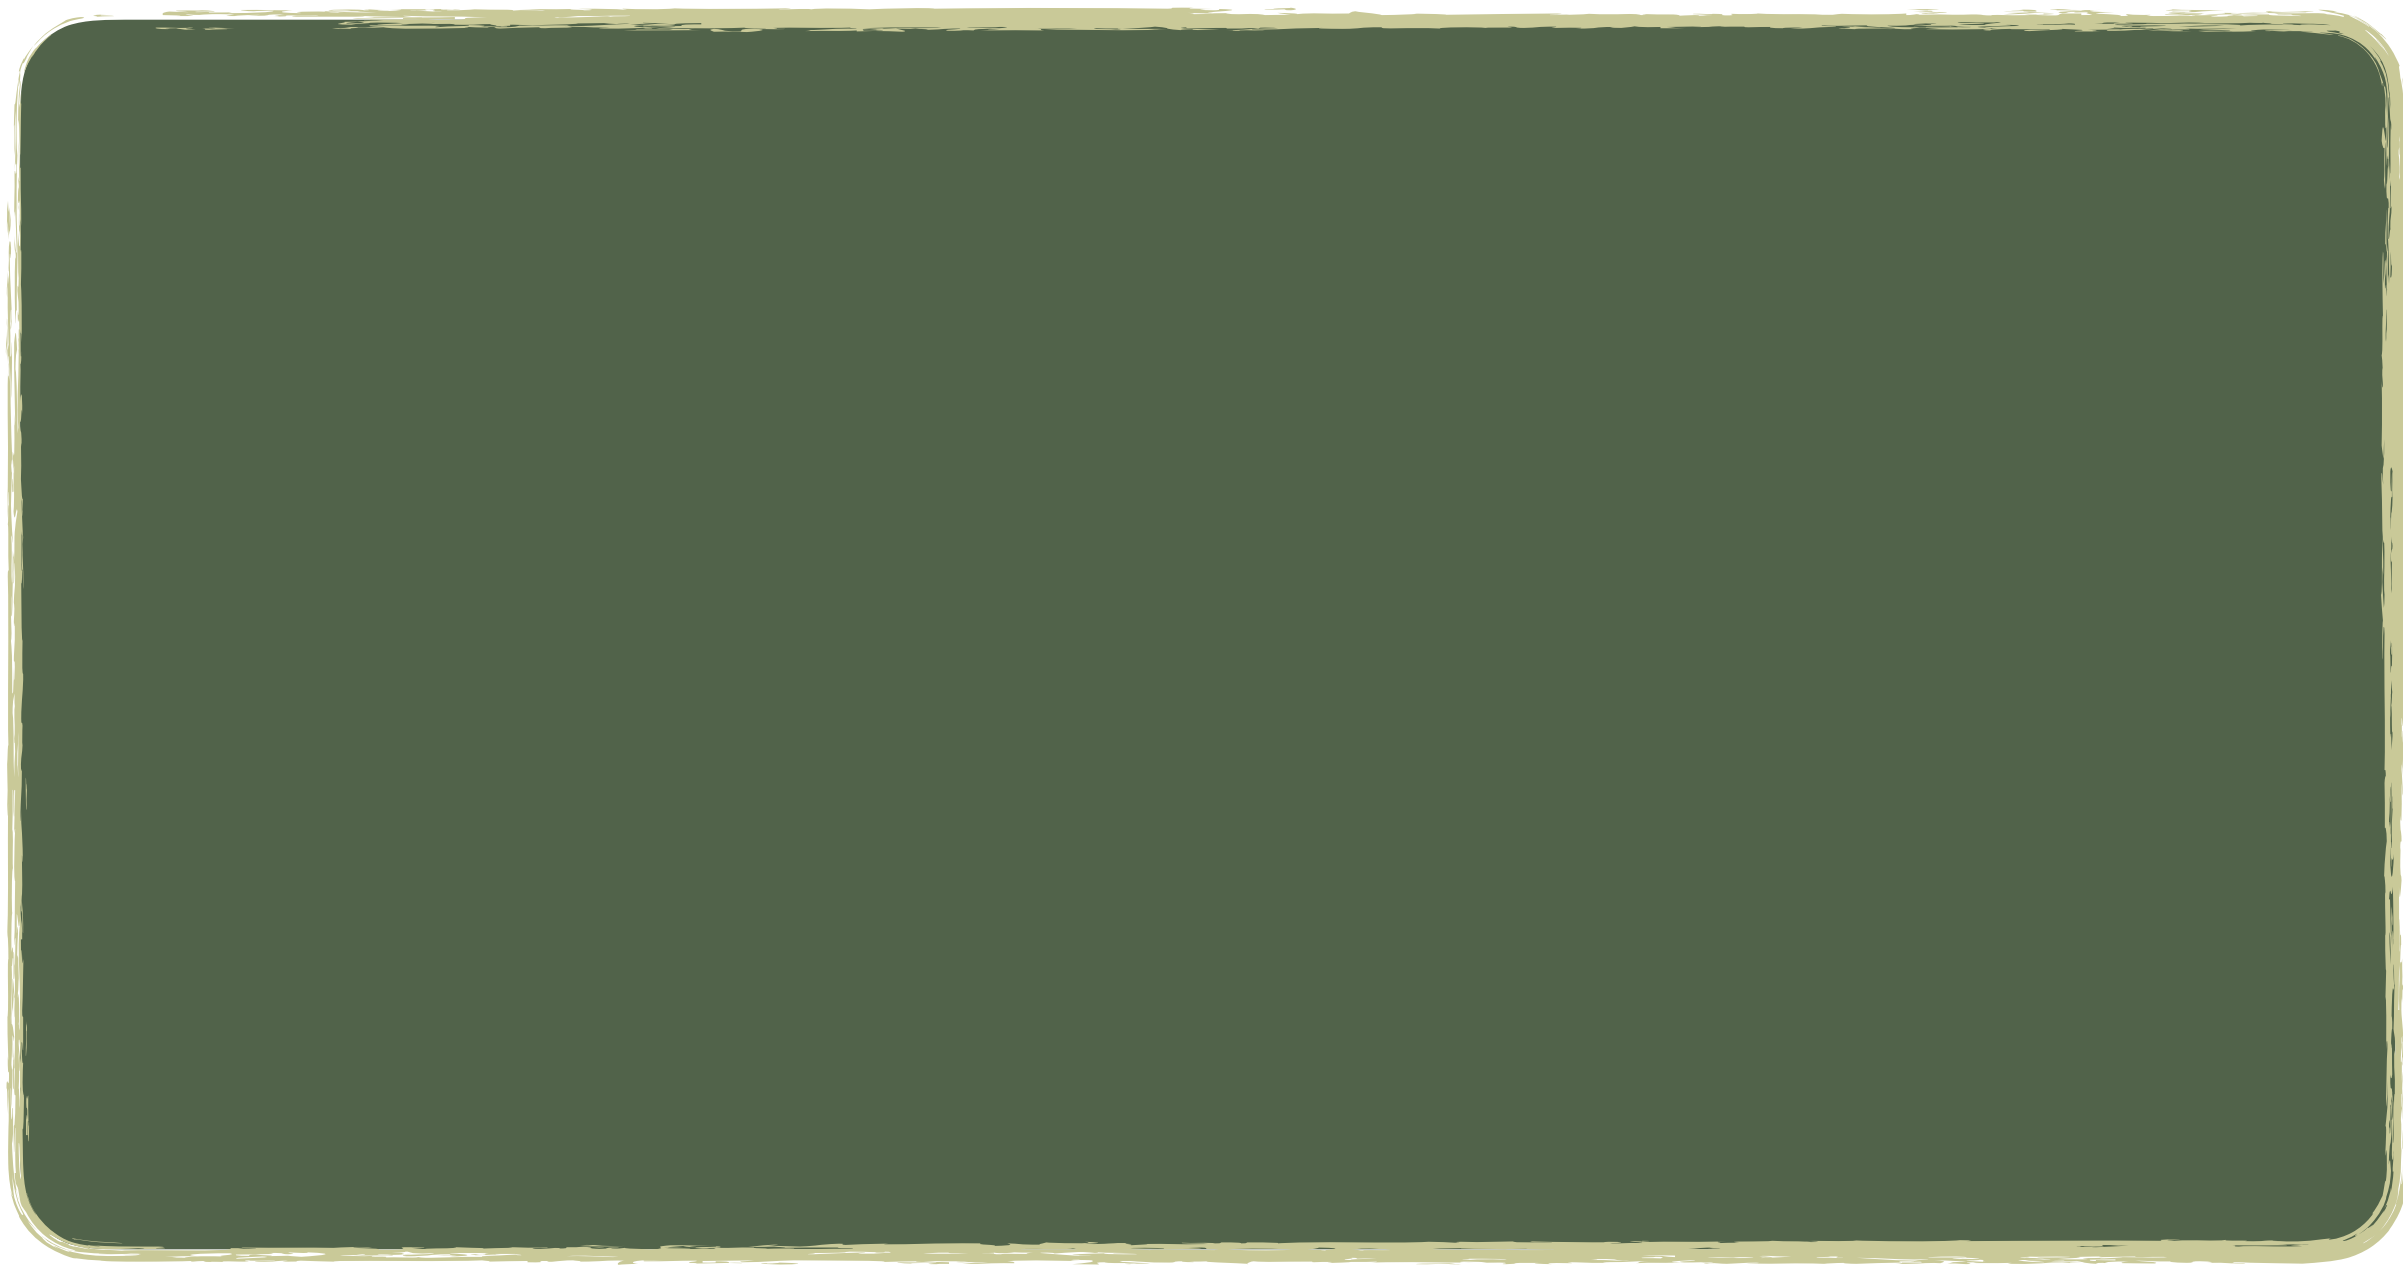

M

M

U

U

2

M

W

RE

1

1

U

U

1

U

Abiotic Factors

a nonliving condition or thing, that influences an ecosystem.

CLIMATE:

- Hot, dry climate: +100 degrees F
- Mild, moist, cold winters: -30 degrees F
- Precipitation: Annual rainfall is 10-17 in. Most rain falls in the winter.

FIRES:

Shrublands periodically have fires, often caused by lightning storms, because they have such little rain, and their plants are so flammable

